The content of the song

A girl sings:

My beloved, I waited for you three evenings on the river Danube. Why didn't you come? Did you lose your horse? Don't you love me more?

My mother has heard bad words about you. Is it true that you are lying to me? Does another woman listen to your words?

When the moon appeared, I left. The water of the Danube became muddy.

The girl is like a bouquet of flowers – it is beautiful in the morning and withered in the evening.
